The Prez Sez

The January campout at Woods Valley is going to be a good one! We know it will be fun because rumor has it that Dan & Robyn Johnson are attending. We have twenty-five rigs signed up with room for about thirty-five. Sharon, the camp director is setting aside the entire campground for us. There is still room for you. Remember this is a potluck campout, so check the details in the flyer for who brings what for the meals.

The nomination committee has presented a complete slate to be voted on at the February meeting. Nominations remain open until they are closed at that meeting. If you are interested in running for an office please contact Paul Rich, committee chairperson or attend the February meeting.

Our annual calendar of event is full and most of the events have a wagon master and assistant. We can always use your help, so don't be shy. Call the General Wagon Master, Randy Barrows, and let him know you will help. A little help goes a long way to make our monthly campouts enjoyable.

See you at Woods Valley.

Recipes for Camping

Carrot Relish by Linda Mosbrook

Peel and thinly slice 1 pound of carrots. Cook in small amount of lightly salted water until barely tender – a very few minutes. (I use a pressure cooker, maybe 2 minutes.) Do not overcook, but it isn't a disaster if you do. Drain carrots in colander and cool.

½ green bell pepper, diced
½ red bell pepper, diced

The green from 3 or 4 green onions, sliced

A few inner, tender celery leaves, cut thin

½ can low salt tomato soup (10 ½ oz size)

¼ cup Girard's "Original" flavor salad dressing, (or Italian of your choice)

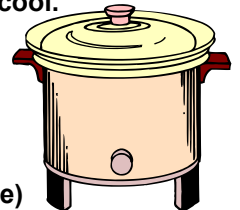

1 tsp regular mustard

½ tsp Worcestershire sauce

1 tsp Seasoned salt, or to taste

¼ cup brown sugar

Mix ingredients well and pour over carrots in tight fitting container. Tip container a couple of times to distribute sauce thoroughly. Refrigerate at least overnight, but 2 or 3 days is also fine. Tip container a couple of times while refrigerated. I drain off much of the sauce in a colander before serving, and serve cold. Enjoy.
